MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
San Antonio, June 12.—The death of Welch Hucard, first supposed to be injured by a fall from his wagon while coming to the city, developed into suspicion of murder, and two men are now in jail on charge of knowing all about it.

GALVESTON'S POPULATION.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Galveston, June 12.—The new directory just issued gives Galveston a population of 63,660.
Local labor organizations have called attention of the commissioners' court to the urgent need of a matron in the county jail where several insane women are being cared for by male attendants.

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Houston, June 12.—H. A. Brown, a prepossessing looking young man, was arrested by Deputies Winn and Thompson to-day. He is wanted in Montgomery, Ala., for embezzlement. The clue was obtained through the post-office here which led to his arrest. Brown was accompanied to the station house by a handsome woman.

NOTED MURDER TRIAL.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Dallas, June 12.—The trial of H. Alexander, on charge of murdering Major I. B. Randle, on December 19, last, was begun before Judge Clint today. Eight lawyers are engaged in the case. Cranford & Crawford of Dallas, Duncan & Jones of Tyler, appeared for defense. The whole morning was spent on a motion by defense. The court room is packed as sensation is sure to ensue.

ENDORSES ANTI-TRUST MEETING.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Austin, Texas, June 12.—Governor Sayers this morning is in receipt of letters from Governor Tanner of Illinois, Governor Shaw of Iowa, Governor Bushnell of Ohio, Governor Pingree of Michigan, Governor Thomas of Colorado, Governor Poynter of Nebraska, and Governor Bradley of Kentucky, all endorsing his anti-trust convention, and promising to be in attendance.

FORD'S DEATH WATCH.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Waco, Texas, June 12.—The death watch was last night placed on Walter Ford, the young negro to be hanged on July 14, for the murder of his sweetheart. And he was very restless all night. The gallows is all ready in the attic of the court house. The court said that while the law required death watch in such cases, there is no provision to pay it, and that Sheriff Baker would be compelled to pay the expenses.
Four conventions meet here tomorrow, and all is hurry preparing for them.

IT WILL TAKE TWO CARS.

Special to the Daily Enterprise.
Fort Worth, June 12.—It will take two cars to take the real estate men, and Christian endeavor delegates to Waco tomorrow.

Jim Garlington, the train robber, who has been sentenced to death, told the Fannin county sheriff that he would disclose something about outlaw infesting that county for years, if his sentence is commuted.

U. T. COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Bailey addressed the literary societies, making interesting and eloquent address. Concerts and anniversary of the literary societies will be given tonight. Visitors from all over Texas are here.

KILLING AT MANSFIELD.

Mansfield, Tex. June 10.—One of the worst tragedies ever known in this part of Tarrant county occurred in the Mansfield postoffice at 10 o'clock this morning. J. Donk Murphree walked into the Mansfield postoffice and politely asked for his mail. He was informed by the postmaster, R. Sherman Gaudin, that there was none for him. Murphree turned without a word and started out of the building. On reaching the door he turned quickly and, drawing a revolver, fired point blank at Postmaster Gaudin, striking him in the breast and killing him instantly. Murphree then fired at R. A. Gaudin, father of the postmaster, who was standing in the room. The bullet entered the Senior Gaudin's shoulder and inflicted a dangerous wound.

Murphree then walked out of the building and down the street, holding his pistol in his hand. He had now gone a hundred yards before he was placed under arrest by City Marshal Sullivan. All Mansfield quickly became excited over the affair and talk of lynching Murphree was heard on all sides. He was hurried away to Fort Worth and placed in the county jail.

No cause whatever is assigned for Murphree's act. The elder Gaudin says his son was as unconscious of danger as he himself was, and that neither dreamed of Murphree desiring to murder them.

Murphree fired at a man over a slight misunderstanding about two years ago. Before that he shot at his own father. He is believed to be of unsound mind. He told the officers that he would soon make a statement and that he would not be condemned after that. His examining trial is set for Tuesday, June 13.
